

KLOVE broadcasts are vital to the support and health of our family units. They are one of the only stations to offer family-friendly programming 24/7/365. They are also one of the only stations to consistently provide uplifting and positive messages that target real-life situations and real families. Removing even one KLOVE station from the airwaves would have an immediate and deleterious affect on the families in our nation.